

Press Release

City of Fullerton

Date: January 23, 2019
Contact: Stephen Hale, Public Information Coordinator
(714) 738-6317
SHale@cityoffullerton.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

N.U.F.F. to Hold Forum for City Council Vacancy Applicants

FULLERTON, Calif. (January 23, 2019) — The City of Fullerton is pleased to announce the Neighbors United For Fullerton will be hosting a public forum with Applicants for the City Council Vacancy at the Fullerton Public Library Conference Center at 6:45 p.m. on Monday, January 28, 2019.

This event is free and open to the public and will provide a forum for applicants for the current City Council vacancy to interact with residents. Additionally, residents and stakeholders will have the opportunity to meet with candidates who could potentially fill the current vacancy with the Fullerton City Council. The City Council is holding a Special City Council meeting on Tuesday, January 29, 2019 to consider an appointment.

The City of Fullerton will also be hosting a Facebook Live Event on their official Facebook Page, which can found at www.facebook.com/CityofFullerton. The Facebook Live Event will be available for archive on the City's website following the event.

The Fullerton Public Library is located at 353 W. Commonwealth Ave. For more information, contact the Neighbors United For Fullerton at info@nuffpac.org.

###